5) The Continuance of the establishment detailed in the preamble to the G.O. dated the 7th July 1945 (L) upto the end of June 1946 may be sanctioned. There are no circumstances warranting at present a reduction in this estt. Though with the cessation of hostilities, a policy of gradual relaxation of non-essential Controls is being followed, there seems to be no early prospect of any appreciable reduction in the work of the Control offices of our Food Deptt. On the contrary, the unfavourable seasonal conditions & the consequent stringency in supplies might involve greater strain on the sections in that office dealing with procurement & transport.
